Dr. Jürgen Luh, born in 1963, is a historian at the Stiftung Preußische Schlösser und Gärten Berlin-Brandenburg. He has published broadly on Prussian and military history. Luh was responsible for the "Friedrich 300" events in Potsdam 2012. His 2011 biography Der Große: Friedrich II von Preußen is an important contribution to the controversy on character and heritage of the Prussian king.
